<sup>2</sup> Because this matter is set for a bench trial, the Court will not consider motions in limine. Any complicated evidentiary issues should be addressed in the trial briefs.

<sup>3</sup> Designations are required for only witnesses that will testify entirely by deposition. For any such witnesses, the entire transcript should be provided to the Court in hard copy form, with the portions that each side wishes the Court to consider highlighted (a different color for each side is optional) and any objections notated in the margins.
